SOCKS 2000

Handing out socks and hoodies to the homeless at the Puyallup Armory

Brian Deren, Sue Farley, and Cindi Lang were at the Puyallup Armory where St. Francis House sponsors a meal program. The meal program provides dinner every night in coordination with 30 teams of volunteers which include churches and non-profit service groups. The volunteers purchase, prepare and serve the meals. Thirty-five sets of two

From the President

With Rob Rang as speaker this month we will be dispensing with most of the normal business. We will need to vote for our nominees for Sea Hawker of the Year and Rookie of the Year so it will be appreciated if you can review the write ups on the website and be prepared to vote. A link will be provided in the newsletter along with the list of rookies.

pairs were handed out along with several hoodies. We also left additional socks, including children's and women's socks for them to hand out at future dinners. The night we handed out the socks, members of the Puyallup Lions provided the dinner. All of the men and women who received the socks and hoodies were very appreciative.

SEA HAWKER AND ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

It is time to vote for the Sea Hawker of the Year and Rookie of the Year. Both to be announced at the Annual Sea Hawkers Banquet in May. We will be voting on these at the meeting on March 20th and submitting them to Central Council as a chapter. Email your votes If and only if you won't be at the meeting.

Select two (2) for Sea Hawker of the Year - go to <http://southsoundseahawkers.com/PDF/SHOTY2017.pdf> for the write-ups. There are eleven nominees numbered 1 - 11.

Please read these online even if you will be at the meeting as there will be limited copies available.
