

MAY BUNCO PARTY

Twenty-three bunco players were at the May Bunco party on May 20th.

The May Bunco had a good turnout and everyone had fun. Brian barbecued hamburgers and hot dogs and everyone brought something to go with them. We made $520.00 for our charity for May, FLASH.

Central Council Updates

Sea Hawk Boosters Central Council meeting was held June 6. Among items discussed were the formation of a Chapter Compliance Committee to look into Chapters that aren't using the right logo. Elise, VP Entertainment, gave an update on the Picnic. Each chapter is requested to bring a $25 gift for raffle. Sea Hawk Boosters will provide the main dish and will send out an email for sides.

Volunteers are needed for manning the booth for Training Camp. An email will be sent out with more information.

From the President

June is a new month for us to have a meeting. I hope you all can make it, let's make it a success!

December will be our Annual Christmas Party.

Bus to Games

Don't forget we get a bus to go to each home game and we would like to get more riders. We don't have any idea on price yet as we have to wait for parking to become available. The bus leaves 2.5 hours before game time from 78th and Hosmer. We have beer, pop and a football board.

SEAHAWK RAFFLE ITEMS

If you see different Seahawk items on sale, pick them up for the raffle and you will be reimbursed by the club.

NESBY GLASGOW

Sea Hawkers
Love You

Nesby, what do I say, he's a generous man when it comes down to giving his time for so many different charities. He's always got a smile on his face he will tell you like it is no holding back lol, will give up his day to make someone else's day better. A lot of people don't know how much adversity he's been through, but I know first hand. I won't go into detail, but believe me it would be tough for me to still keep a smile on my face if I had to walk in his shoes. Always a giving man that is driven to help others even when he could use a little help once in awhile himself. For those of you that have had spent time with him you know everything I've said is very true. Love that man.

Lester Stepper

Hello Sea Hawkers

Please write your inspiring, positive words to Nesby. He has always been available for the Sea Hawkers. Also if you have a story or encounter with Nesby, please share it.

Thank you
Sea Hawkers
