

South Sound Sea Hawkers

November 18, 2025

Meeting called to order by President Colin Mitchell at 7:00 pm at the Canyon Terrace Clubhouse.

Officers Present: Colin Mitchell, Deanna Roe, Sue Farley, Cindi Lang

Colin: Colin went over the Christmas Party which will be December 7th at 9:00 am. Watch party will be the Falcons vs the Seahawks. Will be making omelets with everyone bringing a pre-cooked protein. Please bring a dish to go with the omelets. Gift exchange (optional) $25 maximum. There will be drawings.

Sue: At the quarterly board meeting five charities were decided on to each get $300. The charities were Gods Pantry Food Bank, Graham; Helping Hand House, Puyallup; Vadis, Sumner; Toy Rescue Mission Tacoma; Friend of Metro Animal Shelter, Pierce County. There is now $808.77 in the account. In Bunco for 2025 we donated $3476 to the charities supported.

Board Voting: President Colin Mitchell, and Secretary Cindi Lang were the only nominations so they were re-elected.

Flags: Sharon reported that flags were placed on November 7 for Veteran's Day and removed on November 14. Wreaths across America: There will be an Honor Parade on December 12 that will meet at 12:15 pm at Shaw and Pioneer. Bring cars to escort the truck with the wreaths. There are 2265 veterans graves at the Orting Soldier's Cemetery. Saturday December 13 at 9:00 am there will be a program.

Skoolie: Skoolie Foundation had their Masquerade Gala. They filled all 25 tables, however they were short of their goal.

St. Francis

House: Trisha Frey gave a report on St. Francis House's Christmas programs. She has 99 families adopted for Christmas. There is going to be a Toy Drive on December 6th

Fan of the Year: Our Elise was chosen as Fan of the Year for the Seahawks. The NFL Fan of the Year will be announced Super Bowl week.

Games: The LA and Tennessee games were discussed.

Charity

Reporting: Please report your charity hours and dollars donated.

Upcoming

Events: December 7, 2025 - Christmas Party at Canyon Terrace Clubhouse

Meeting was adjourned.

Respectively Submitted
Cindi Lang, Secretary

